

Comings & Goings: What's New Around Town

Goodbye Susanne

By Barb Guy

We've lost a fierce fighter for women's rights, a tender-hearted advocate for animals, a beloved radio show host, and a dedicated champion of musicians. After a two-year ass-kicking from breast cancer, Susanne Millsaps died in October at the age of 53. She was honored with news-section obits in both daily papers and countless memorials on KRCL, as well as a major send-off at the Holladay Church of Christ, attended by hundreds of friends including many musicians who came from around the country to play for her memorial. Goodbye, Susanne.
