

Apr 1847

12 miles from the Elk Horn and about 47 from Winter Quarters.

I spent the evening with Aaron Farr, Horace Whitney & Jackson Redding.

Friday 16. This day is gloomy, windy and cold. About 8 the Camp men called together and organized. 2 Captains of 100<sup>o</sup> viz Stephen Markham and A. P. Rockwood were appointed, also 5 Captains of 50<sup>o</sup> and 15 Captains of 10<sup>o</sup>. There are 143 men and boys on the list of the pioneer company, 2 women and Lorenzo Youngs 3 children. 73 wagons. C. P. Rockwood has gone back to camp with J. C.
Little. Bishop Whitney, Lyman, Mrs Kimball and J. B. Nobles return from here to winter Quarters.

(For the names of the guard and the gun division see under date of April 30th)

Stephen Markham was appointed the captain of the Guard, and ordered to select out of the Camp, fifty men for guard, such as he had confidence in who are to be considered as a standing guard, to attend to the wagons each night 12 of them to stand at a time, and to have 2 sets each night, that is 12 each watch to stand half the night. In cases when the horses and cattle are tied some distance from the wagons at night an extra guard is to be selected from the balance of the company or Camp.

The standing guard not being permitted to leave the immediate neighborhood of the wagons. After the organization was over I wrote a letter to Diantha, and put it into the hands of Bishop Whitney, together with the one I received yesterday from father & J. Mc. Crown, also the one from Ellen to James.
Up to 12 o'clock M. I had no where to put my trunk and clothing, and did
