[no title] The Wayne Sentinel 6, no. 40 (June 26, 1829):3, Palmyra, New York

Just about in this particular region, for some time past, much speculation has existed, concerning a pretended discovery, through superhuman means, of an ancient record, of a religious and divine nature and origin, written in ancient characters, impossible to be interpreted [sic] by any to whom the special gift has not been imparted by inspiration. It is generally known and spoken of as the "Golden Bible." Most people entertain an idea that the whole matter is the result of a gross imposition, and a grosser superstition. It is pretended that it will be published as soon as the translation is completed. Mean while we have been furnished with the following, which is represented to us as intended for the title page of the work - - we give it as a curiosity: -
