PAUL WAKE

■■■■ ■■■■■ ■■■■■ ■■■■ • Springville, Utah 84663 • (801) 491-■■■■

EMPLOYMENT

Deputy Utah County Attorney, spring 1997–present
Prosecute cases in juvenile, justice, and district courts; do civil work including litigation, drafting contracts and ordinances, advising county officials, serving as civil violations hearing examiner, and appearing at sanity and Labor Commission proceedings
  Related activities:
    Utah Supreme Court Juvenile Rules Advisory Committee member; trial advocacy faculty at National Advocacy Center; served on delinquency, Olympics, SHOCAP, judicial case management, juvenile drug court, and truancy task forces; provided juvenile law instruction at POST, UVSC, and BYU's law school; presented on ethics at Utah Prosecution Council training; published legal practice articles in The Prosecutor, Utah Bar Journal, and The BYU Journal of Public Law

Other legal work:
Special Deputy Salt Lake County Attorney, law clerk, Salt Lake County Attorney's office; Law Library Faculty Research Assistant, University of Utah; law clerk, Utah Office of Legislative Research and General Counsel

Other work:
High school teacher, ambulance crew (ground and air), plywood mill laborer

EDUCATION

College of Law, University of Utah, J.D., May 1996
Utah Law Review member, published on state constitutional law; Leary Scholar, fall 1995; environmental law clinic

Brigham Young University, B.A., Political Science, December 1988, Minors: Zoology, History
Study Abroad Vienna; Washington, D.C. internship; Timpanogos Biological Station; co-founded BYU's human rights group; Special Olympics Adapted Aquatics coach

Other education:
Oregon Institute of Marine Biology

ACTIVITIES AND INTERESTS

Judge Pro Tempore, Fourth District Court's Provo small claims department; Utah Law-Related Education Project mock trial coach and judge; Scouter; youth soccer coach

Enjoy family activities; hiking; reading; river running; playing piano, harmonica, and guitar; diving; watercolor; climbing; photography; skiing; gardening; travel; web design; rocketry