

Supplier Terms & Conditions Agreement

General: Radius Engineering, Inc. operates under a Quality Management System compliant with the AS9100 C standard. As a supplier to Radius Engineering, Inc. it is understood that when accepting our Purchase Orders, the supplier agrees to meet the following stipulations / AS9100 requirements. For clarification purposes, in this document "Supplier" means the company or entity we contract with, via a formal Purchase Order, to provide raw materials, components or services we use to create the parts and assemblies required by our customers:

1. The supplier must notify Radius Engineering, Inc. of nonconforming product or service.
2. In the event of nonconforming product or service, the supplier must obtain approval for nonconforming product dispositions from authorized Radius Engineering, Inc. personnel.
3. The supplier shall notify Radius Engineering, Inc. of changes in product and or process, changes of sub suppliers, changes of manufacturing facility location and where required by us, obtain Radius Engineering, Inc. approval for the changes prior to making them.
4. The supplier of items or provider of services ordered by Radius Engineering, Inc. must flow down to their supply chain the applicable requirements of Radius Engineering, Inc. and our customer's requirements as explained on the Purchase Order, if applicable.
5. The supplier must also agree to keep, retain and maintain records that are legible, readily identifiable and completely retrievable for a minimum of seven (7) years for the materials and or services we request. Specific instructions will be given on Radius Engineering Purchase Order to the supplier if the time duration has been increased by our customer to more than seven (7) years.
6. The supplier must give right of access by Radius Engineering, Inc., our customer, and regulatory authorities to the applicable areas of all facilities, at any level of the supply chain, involved in the order. This right of access shall also apply to all applicable seller/supplier records for the product or services provided per condition 5 above if applicable.
7. Any requirements not listed above will be listed on the Purchase Order when applicable.
