Jonathan Benson DID NOT read instructions although he did sign the acknowledgement. He did not take ANY pictures. Looking at all the signatures of customer, I question if it was the customer. I called the customer MATT, he said he only signed on page, the first one. It appears Jonathan signed for the customer on every page after the Redman work order. My only option is to send him back to the site and have him take the pictures of the freight uncrated.
