

Come, Thou Fount of Bogus Motions

♩ = 75 or so

Words by Paul Wake
Traditional Melody

Come, thou fount of bog-us mot - ions, ask the judg - es to do wrong. If they Facts and law, you'll sure-ly twist them, truth and jus - tice you must fight. First con -
Toss some mud in - to the wa - ter, stir it up to cloud the view. Cite a balk then file a plead - ing, ar - gue loud and ar - gue long. Teach us — demn what e'er the cops do, all a - rests and vio - late some right. Don't for - case, in - vent a hold - ing, hope that no one checks it's true. Prone to — how the cons - ti - tu - tion stands up — for the crim - inal mind. Game the get the pros - e - cu - tors, all they — do the just flouts the law. Scorn their wan - der from sound lo - gic, prone to dis - tort the law we love. Waste our sys - tem, de - mand a proc - ess that to all good sense is blind.

5

9

13

eth - ics, smear their eff - orts, find or make up the some grave flaw.
time and call it zeal - ous, you won't fool the courts a - bove.